“Here’s To More Birthdays” – PJPII HS Student-Athletes Raise Awareness With Weekend Activities

Hyannis, MA – October 12, 2011 – Pope John Paul II High School will host the first ever “Pink Game” on Friday evening, October 14 when the football team hosts Trinity Catholic High School (Newton). The game will be played at Clean Harbors Stadium on the campus of Massachusetts Maritime Academy and begins at 7:00 PM.

Details include:

- On Thursday, October 13, PJPII HS students will participate in “wear pink day” at the school to raise awareness for all students.
- Student volunteers will canvas the stands at half time of the football game accepting donations using containers from the American Cancer Society.
- The PJPII HS football players will wear pink socks and pink wrist bands during the game to show their solidarity with this important cause.
- PJPII HS cheerleaders will wear pink ribbons in their hair during the game.
- On Sunday, October 16, for the second consecutive year, the football players and cheerleaders will help set-up, cheer, participate in, and break down the Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Walk. The event begins at 9:30 AM at the Peter G. Homer Memorial Park, 144 Old Town House Rd, South Yarmouth. (Note: Each PJPII HS athletic team participates in a service project once during their season.)
